

The Washington Times is running an op-ed written by Congressman Mike Pence on the future of conservatism and the Republican Party. Congressman Pence writes,

Republicans have an opportunity to redefine our party with humility, vision, policy alternatives and a willingness to fight for the priorities and values of everyday Americans. The op-ed is available in its entirety

HERE

.